

Wine Spectator online

Tablas Creek Côtes de Tablas Paso Robles 2003

Well-crafted, with a complex mix of dried cherry and dried currant, mineral, earth, leather and sage, finishing with firm tannins and a burst of ripe fruit and gravelly flavors. Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre and Counoise. Drink now through 2009. 2,400 cases made. —JL

Score: 87 | Price: $20

Country: California

Region: South Coast

Issue: Web Only (2006)