

Dan Berger's Vintage Experiences
The Weekly Wine Commentary

August 30, 2007

“VERY HIGHLY RECOMMENDED”

2006 TABLAS CREEK VINEYARD
Côtes de Tablas Paso Robles

“A delightful white wine that’s a blend of Viognier and Marsanne. The aroma has white peach and plum notes, with a blossom-y hint and a bold, rich entry. The acidity is firm, and it all works nicely with corn and crab chowder and other slighty sweet seafood dishes.”