91 Tablas Creek Vineyard 2007 Esprit de Beaucastel Blanc (Paso Robles); $40. This an homage to the owning family's white Rhône wine from France. It's a crisp, minerally wine, firm and clean and dry, with flavors of dried citrus fruits, orange peel, honeysuckle flower, vanilla and toast. Shows real elegance and sophistication. - S.H. 87 Tablas Creek Vineyard 2007 Côtes de Tablas Blanc (Paso Robles); $25. This Rhône-style blend of Viognier, Marsanne and other varieties is very rich and direct. It offers jammy flavors of apricots, pineapples, peaches and vanilla, with a bracing minerality. Drink now. - S.H. (8/1/2009)
