

Wine Spectator

March 15, 2010

89 Tablas Creek Côtes de Tablas Blanc Paso Robles 2008 $25

Vibrant and lively, with floral and grassy overtones to the peach, melon, citrus and tangy green apple flavors, which are crisp, clean and very refreshing, with spice and mineral details on the finish. Viognier, Roussanne, Marsanne and Grenache Blanc. Drink now. 3,000 cases made. – MaryAnn Worobiec