

Wine Spectator Insider

Marvin R. Shanken Editor and Publisher

A Members-Only, Weekly Publication

THIS week, Wine Spectator's Insider takes you on a tour of California, pointing out 38 exciting wines from the Golden State. James Laube covers Napa Valley Cabernets, Sonoma and Napa Chardonnays and Rhône-style reds from across California; Tim Fish chimes in with a few Merlots as well. You'll find outstanding new wines from Napa's Lewis, JC Cellars and Robert Foley in this report, as well as the latest offering from former WineSpectator.com guest blogger and accomplished rock star Maynard James Keenan's Caduceus label, but turn to the Hot Wines, on page 4, for this issue's top-scoring wine, a classic-rated 2007 Amador County Syrah from Favia, the winery's first 95-point wine.

There are also a few rare California red values in this week's Insider—five outstanding Rhône-style reds in this issue are priced at $25 or less.

California

ERIC KENT

Syrah Dry Creek Valley 2007

WINE SPECTATOR'S TASTERS

The Most Experienced Team of Wine Journalists in the World

Wine Spectator's tasting staff includes 14 people in three offices. They work together to review more than 18,000 wines each year, more than any other publication. Together, our seven senior tasters count more than 140 years of tasting experience.

We always taste wine blind in our offices in Napa, New York and Tuscany. This is your guarantee that our reviews are fair and objective, and that a wine's reputation or price does not influence its score. Each editor specializes in the wines of specific regions; their initials identify the taster of each wine reviewed. We score wines using the 100-point scale, explained below.
