

Wine Spectator

June 30, 2010

88 Tablas Creek Rosé Paso Robles 2009 $27

A hearty rosé, with a bold scarlet color to match, offering spicy strawberry and plum aromas and ripe, full-bodied flavors that show hints of smoke and fresh earth. Mourvèdre, Grenache and Counoise. Drink now. 640 cases made. – Tim Fish