

Wine Spectator

March 14, 2011

90 Tablas Creek Roussanne Paso Robles 2009 $30

Straw-gold in color, with a wonderful balance between the rich, full-bodied texture and elegant, detailed nuances of pear tart, marzipan, peach blossom and ripe melon flavors. There's just enough acidity to keep the flavors fresh, focused and lingering. Drink now through 2014. 520 cases made. —M.W.