

90 | Tablas Creek

2000 Paso Robles Esprit de Beaucastel
“This blend of mourvèdre, syrah, grenache, and counoise has a rustic anise sweetness. It grips with black fruit and tannins, delicate and firm, staying fresh even as browner tones give a sweaty saddle note. The purple-red color shows how young and undeveloped the wine is right now. Check on it in three to four years.”

Wine & Spirits Magazine, August 2003